

Franca Tecchio, National Research Council, Italy - Brain neuronal activity to personalize neuromodulation therapeutic interventions

National Research Council of Italy (CNR) Senior Staff Researcher, Franca is Coordinator of the LET'S laboratory in clinical environment, within the Dept. of Neuroscience - Fatebenefratelli (Fbf) Hospital in Rome, where she's also Research Coordinator of the Functional Biotechnologies Program, Scientific Collaborator at the Dept. of Neuroimaging, Istituto di Ricovero e Cura a Carattere Scientifico (IRCCS) San Raffaele La Pisana, Rome.

Principal Investigator of 32 projects funded by Italian and International Departments and European Union. Peer Reviewer for 25 scientific journals including Brain, Ann Neurol, Biol Psychiatry, Cereb Cortex, Neurobiol Aging, Cortex, Hum Brain Mapp, Neuroimage.

Invited as External Expert for evaluating grant assignments from 7 international institutions: 7. Danish Council for Independent Research; 6. Swiss National Science Foundation; 5. FWF Osterreich; 4. Akademy of Finland; 3. DFG – Germany; 2. FWF Austria; 1. Medical Research Council-UK.

Form 2013 Associate Editor of RESTORATIVE NEUROLOGY AND NEUROSCIENCE, RNN journal. In 2003, Dr. Tecchio's name appeared in the list of the 10 most active researchers in the neurology field, compiled by the weekly magazine 'La Repubblica Salute' on the basis of a survey of the international literature.

Invited speaker in 29 International Congresses and Seminars, European Project speaker in 14 kickoff, monthly or review meetings, Congress Chairwoman in 6 congresses.

Director of studies of 12 graduate students, 8 PhD students.

PUBLICATIONS [PUBMED] : 106 Full papers; [ISI Scopus] Impact Factor 350;

Personal Citations: 3752, H-index = 35, i10-index = 80

from <http://scholar.google.com/citations?user=j0IJ-u8AAAAJ&hl=it>